

RABBIT & RODENT DENTISTRY WITH OROFACIAL SURGERY

AUGUST 1-3, 2019 | UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA-LINCOLN
SCHOOL OF VETERINARY MEDICINE & BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES

This advanced 3-day course will provide expert instruction & hands-on experience for practitioners with a basic or intermediate knowledge in rabbit and rodent dentistry who desire to advance their skills in diagnostics, dental and orofacial surgical treatment. A 1:10 instructor to student ratio will allow for an intimate and immersive learning environment for attendees to practice routine & advanced techniques, gain confidence, & ultimately advance patient care in their practice.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Standard & Advanced Diagnostic Imaging in Rabbits
- Extraoral Treatment & Orofacial Surgery in Rabbits
  - o Maxilla
  - o Mandible
  - o Odontogenic abscesses
  - o Nasal/Ear Surgery
- Rodent Dentistry in Guinea Pigs, Chinchillas, Degus, and Rat-like rodents (rats, mice, gerbils, etc.)

TUITION INCLUDES:

- Hotel lodging
- Transportation (hotel/airport) (hotel/university)
- Breakfast, lunch, & refreshment breaks each day
- Instructional materials

21 HOURS C.E.

(RACE APPROVED)

EARLY BIRD: $1899 (ENDS MAY 31)

REGULAR RATE: $2099

INSTRUCTORS

DR. VITTORIO CAPELLO

DABVP (ECM), ECZM - Small Mammal,
European Veterinary Specialist in
Zoological Medicine (Small Mammal)

DR. ANGELA LENNOX

DABVP (ECM & Avian),
ECZM - Small Mammal

SPONSORED BY

Registration opens on March 31, 2019 at www.oxbow.vet/dentistry

For more information about the event, contact eventcoord@oxbowanimalhealth.com

Oxbow Animal Health 11902 South 150th Street, Omaha, NE 68138 USA | (800) 249-0366