

Certified Veterinary Technician positions available, including Lead CVT position - Portland, Oregon

Come join us at Avian and Exotic Veterinary Care! You will be a valued member of a small staff, including Oregon's only 2 board-certified exotics specialist veterinarians, a zoological medicine intern veterinarian, and 6 CVT's, veterinary assistants and receptionists.

This position REQUIRES the following:

An active Oregon license as a Certified Veterinary Technician, or ability to obtain one within 1 month of starting date

Respect for the human-animal bond as it is reflected across all species

Work on some weekend days and some holidays. Typical workweek includes 3 weekdays and 1 weekend day.

Excellent customer service skills, using phone, email and in person communications

Ability to communicate using correct spelling and grammar

Ability to follow verbal and written instructions

Willingness to learn new technical skills and "soft skills" including interpersonal communication

Willingness to undergo a criminal background check before hire

Experience working in a private practice veterinary clinic

Lead CVT position also requires the ability to inspire, direct and instruct co-workers

Compensation/benefits package includes hourly wage of $17-22/hour (or $22-27/hour for Lead CVT position), health/dental insurance, paid time off, a continuing education fee allowance, uniforms, pet care discounts, and access to the support provided by our communications coach. The effective wage of hourly pay plus benefits equals $22.38-27.47/hour (or $27.24-32.69 for Lead CVT position).

When responding to this job announcement, please email us at AEVC.jobs@gmail.com. Please include the text of your resume in the body of your email, including the names and email addresses of 3 professional references (at least 1 of which must be a veterinarian). Do not include an attachment of a resume or CV with your email, for computer virus blocking protection. Emails sent with attachments will be discarded.