

HIRING ZOOLOGICAL MEDICINE TECHNICIANS

Elevate your Career, Join Our Growing Team!

Oklahoma State University Veterinary Teaching Hospital is seeking registered veterinary technicians to join our Zoological Medicine team!

We are looking for 2 technicians to join our Zoological Medicine service, which is comprised of 2 faculty and 2 house officers. Technicians will be involved in the management of exotics, wildlife, and zoo animals. Routine responsibilities will include, but are not limited to, performing care for inpatients and outpatients, assisting clinicians and students in procedures, instructing professional veterinary students, performing inhouse lab work, ensuring appropriate billing, and maintaining specialized equipment and stocking. Prior experience with small animal anesthesia and exotic animals is strongly preferred. Research opportunities and, if applicable, pursuance of Veterinary Technician Specialist (VTS) will be encouraged and supported.

Join our team of dedicated professionals at the state's premier veterinary hospital and experience the difference of working with America's Brightest Orange.

We offer outstanding benefits - generous vacation and sick leave allowances, shift differentials for non-traditional shifts, 12 paid holidays, fantastic health insurance and retirement plans, dependent tuition waivers and employee tuition assistance - state-of-the-art facilities and client-patient bonding opportunities in a fast-paced and diverse university environment.

Nestled in the heart of Stillwater, Oklahoma, one of the friendliest college towns in America, and with quick access to both Oklahoma City and Tulsa, OSU is the place to be.

We are committed to providing the highest standard of veterinary care and advancing the teaching mission of our university.
